To reserve your spot, please contact Kim Kloess at kim@habitatdurham.com. We have space for 20 volunteers per session only.

Volunteers attending the orientation sessions should come prepared with a variety of dates and times they would be available. We will be scheduling interested volunteers after the sessions.

To ensure that you receive your Disney voucher, each individual must also pre-register and sign up through www.DisneyParks.ca. Once you have registered and selected Habitat for Humanity Durham as your volunteer opportunity, you will receive a confirmation e-mail from Disney Parks.

As specified by the Give a Day, Get a Disney Day program, free tickets are limited to one ticket per person. Also, you can not sign up for a volunteer opportunity under the program that is more than 60 days in the future.
